1

I will exalt you, O God, because you have lifted me / up * and have not let my enemies triumph / over me.

2

O my God, I cried out to / you, * and you restored me to / health.

3

You brought me up, O God, from the / dead; *
you restored my life as I was going down to the / grave.

4

Sing to God, you servants of / God; *

For his wrath endures but the twinkling of an / eye, *

The Prayers of the People

O God, you have loved each of us since before we were born and you love each of us in equal and abundant measure. Yet we sometimes choose to live as though we were not the brothers and sisters we know ourselves to be.

Pour your blessing upon all your people in every nation whatever their faith or ethnicity;
Lord hear our prayers.

Preserve all lives from the terror of war;
Increase our capacity for peace among all people.

Guide us in the way of fullness of reconciliation and healing;
Be with us in our prayers Lord.

Bring us all a deepening sense of our oneness in the human family;
That those things that unite your people may be seen and felt as greater than anything that divides us.

Courteous Lord, you cast your net of love so wide and gather us from the ends of the earth; so bless and guide our Anglican Communion that we may be held fast in the bonds of our affection for one another.

Silence

Thank you our Creator for making us your stewards, those servants whose task it is to see that this earth and all of your Creation are used according to your purpose. We pray for all living people, creatures and systems impacted by the Gulf Oil Crisis.

Silence

Concluding Collect

Holy God, as families gather for this holiday weekend, let us all become children of innocence, full of excitement for summer-time vacations and the wonders of new discoveries about ourselves, the good in others and in our world. In the name of your Child, Jesus Christ. Amen

The Holy Communion

We invite all those who seek God and a deeper life in Christ to receive the sacrament of Holy Eucharist. To receive communion take the bread in the palm of your hand. Eat the bread and then drink from the cup when it is offered to you. If you do not wish to receive the bread and wine but would like a blessing, please come forward and cross your arms with your hands on your shoulders and a priest will provide a blessing.
