Information

THE RT. REV. JOHN BRYSON CHANE was consecrated the Eighth Bishop of Washington on June 1, 2002. Previously he served as Dean of Saint Paul's Cathedral, San Diego, California. Before his ministry in San Diego he served parishes in New Jersey and Massachusetts and was Canon Pastor of Saint Paul's Cathedral, Erie, Pennsylvania. From 2003-2005, he served in the dual role of Bishop of Washington and Interim Dean of Washington National Cathedral.

A native of Winchester, Massachusetts, Bishop Chane was married in 1967 to Karen Mae Albright. He and Karen have been blessed with two sons and three grandchildren. As a former prep school and college football and ice hockey player, the bishop continues to have a love of sport. For several years while a priest in Massachusetts, he was the owner and driver of open wheel sprint cars/modified midgets until a life threatening racing accident ended his participation in automotive sports. He now engages in the more pastoral sport of fly fishing.

During the 1960's and prior to his ordination as a priest in the Episcopal Church, the bishop toured as a professional drummer in the United States and Canada with several well known rock and roll bands. He continues to play annual charity events around the country with some of his old band mates in a group named after him, "The Chane Gang."

PENTECOST WITH THE BISHOP ALLELUYER, ALLELUYER, ALLELUYER!

This is our final official visitation by Bishop Chane prior to his upcoming retirement following the election of his successor at a Special Electing Convention on June 18, 2011, at Washington National Cathedral.

During his tenure, Bishop Chane has been an unflagging supporter of St. Thomas' Parish and a courageous and prophetic voice advancing the cause of LGBTQ people in the Diocese of Washington, throughout the Episcopal Church, and across the Anglican Communion.

We have been honored to have him celebrate Capitol Pride with us the last several years by riding in a convertible in the parade, visibly leading all the Episcopal parishes.

John and his wife Karen will be sorely missed by our parish family. To express our appreciation for them and their ministries to our Church, there will be a Garden Party for the Chanes immediately following the service, in the park (weather permitting).

There is much that will never be the same without Bishop Chane, not the least of which is the wonderfully distinctive accent that rubbed off on him during his association with Massachusetts – so with fondness we recall his time with us, saying

ALLELUYER, ALLELUYER, ALLELUYER!

Upcoming

JUNE 18: ELECTION OF NEXT BISHOP

On Saturday, June 18, lay and clergy delegates meet in a Special Electing Convention held at Washington National Cathedral to elect the ninth Bishop of the Diocese of Washington.

The five candidates who have been chosen to stand for election are: The Rev. Ronald G. Abrams of St. James', Wilmington, N.C., the Rev. Dr. Mariann Edgar Budde, of St. John's, Minneapolis, Minn., the Very Rev. Samuel Glenn Candler, of the Cathedral of St. Philip, Atlanta, the Rev. Jane Gould, of St. Stephen's, Lynn, Mass., and the Rev. Canon John T.W. Harmon, of Trinity, D.C.

Most of the clergy of the Diocese, and the regularly elected lay delegates (or alternates) from parishes vote until one candidate has received a majority of both the lay and clergy delegates. Each parish is entitled to 1-5 lay delegates, based on a formula relating to attendance. Voting from St. Thomas' Parish are our delegates Jean Holman and Letty Marquez, along with our Rector, Nancy Lee Jose.

Senior Warden John Johnson served on the Search and Nominating Committee; he gets seat and voice but not vote at the Special Convention.
